Dear Friend,

Remember that saying about "how do you eat an elephant?"

The answer is simple but profound: "one bite at a time."

That's really the secret to tackling any major project in your life. Just break the situation down into small, manageable events that you can accomplish. Before you know it, you've achieved something big!

The Single Most Vital Factor in Finding Success: Become a Great Networker!

We've all seen those people who are great networkers. Good things seem to just "happen" for them.

But nothing just happens in life. The truth is that success comes to successful people because they've learned how to harness the power found in the "laws of networking."

Then, when they've followed the laws of networking, the good things begin to materialize.

During the past 16 years, I've been lucky enough during the course of my business career to rub shoulders with some of the most successful networkers you can imagine.

Over time, I was able to see patterns in the things these people did every single day. By analyzing what they did, I was able to see that there are actual "laws" that hold the power of networking.

Now I'm Ready to Give You These 9 Laws of Networking in "THE ONE MINUTE NETWORKER"

Like you (and everyone else I seem to meet), I'm a pretty busy guy.

Helping companies develop effective sales tools through Dream Builders takes a LOT of time and energy.

But when I first conceived the idea for "THE ONE MINUTE NETWORKER" several years ago, I decided that there was no possible way I could hoard these ideas just for myself.

That's not the way networking works.

That's because one of the keys to successful networking is sharing. So I started to jot down the secrets I've discovered, gradually refining them as time went by.

Finally, after a lot of help from many people who have added a tremendous amount of value to this book - "THE ONE MINUTE NETWORKER" is ready to set loose in the world.

"Okay, Bryan - This Sounds Interesting,
But What the Heck is Actually in this New Book of Yours?"

First of all, let me be clear: "THE ONE MINUTE NETWORKER" is NOT an academic book.

Instead, it's an easy-to-read collection of stories and lessons that illustrate the "9 Laws of Networking."

And it won't take you several evenings to plow your way through it. If you've ever met me, you know that's absolutely NOT MY STYLE! I like things presented quick, easy, and to the point.

That's exactly what you'll get in "THE ONE MINUTE NETWORKER:"

- ❑ How to tap into all the capital you'll ever need
- ❑ The key to letting go of the past, so you're ready for the future
- ❑ How to never forget a name
- ❑ Living abundantly - even if you're penniless!
- ❑ How to access the most valuable database ever created
- ❑ Ask for - and get - exactly what you want
- ❑ Become a "drip" and win friends for life
- ❑ The best way to feel good anytime you want
- ❑ How to make miracles appear in your life

Oh, I forgot to mention. You'll be able to devour all of this life-changing information in just over a single hour. (Yeah, I think it's worth the amount of time you'll trade instead of watching another episode of CSI!)

Your Chance To Change Your Life!

I took a big risk when I decided to write this book.

If you've ever written a book yourself, you know what a huge undertaking it can be. But I gladly dove right in,

Why would a decent businessman with a pretty good head on his shoulders undertake such a risky venture?

Because I wanted to focus all of my energy on creating the best book on networking I could possibly write. No distractions, no sidelines.

And I couldn't be more pleased with the results.
